

Smash Into You

Hey Violet

I don't want the sweet without the lime
And I don't want the you without the mine
I wanna feel it
Yeah I just wanna feel it Ya know it's gotta cut just like a knife
Yeah I want it hot or cold as ice
To make me believe it
Cuz I gotta believe it 'Cause I'm just a wild thing,
Give me the real thing
Baby wind me up and watch me go Don't need no parachute,
You don't even gotta catch my fall,
Or slow me down
'Cause I just wanna hit the ground
And smash into you
And when I jump,
I wanna do it so recklessly
And when I take my aim
Yeah you're gonna know my name
When I smash into you Don't want the smooth without the rough
I don't want the push without the shove
When you're on the edge
Sometimes you gotta lose your head And jump right off into the deep
I'll never look before I leap
Cuz I'd rather be careless
And leave 'em speechless Don't need no parachute,
You don't even gotta catch my fall,
Or slow me down
'Cause I just wanna hit the ground
And smash into you
And when I jump,
I wanna do it so recklessly
And when I take my aim
Yeah you're gonna know my name
When I smash into you 'Cause I'm just a wild thing,
Give me the real thing
Baby wind me up and watch me go Don't need no parachute,
You don't even gotta catch my fall,
Or slow me down
'Cause I just wanna hit the ground
And smash into you

And when I jump,
I wanna do it so recklessly
And when I take my aim
Yeah you're gonna know my name
When I smash into you
