

Anthem Of Why

Guy Sebastian

joe lives with his folks at home smokes little plants he grows cool 4 a kids but 2day is the big 3 0 got lost in habitual fiends now he is crying tears of it seems all his hopes and dreams what have could have been he is saying why oh why does my life pass by u shoulda said how could it have been that all this time saying why 30 candles u r blowin none of the only music you've been playin which deserve a light is the anthem of why always dreamin never doin so they never did take flight still the music that your playin is the anthem of why oh oh ohh suddenlly when she turned 15 stacey dreamt of becoming a pop queen everything changed she found out she had 1 on the way so she, took all the posters of britney mariah,beyonce and whitney and with her dreams

she threw them all away she was saying why oh why if not 4 that night u shoulda said how could it all this time saying why so the song that u r singin all the hopin all the wishin girl u traded 4 a night
is the anthem of why
now your feelin all your dreamin so the song thats your singin was just a waste of time
is the anthem of why
oh ohh oh

always saying why oh why does my life pass by
u shoulda said how know they should have never died all the hopin all the prayin but they faded when u traded how 4 the anthem of why u gotta dream it gotta feel it if never sing it never play it you ever wanna fly its the anthem of why
