

The Word Became Flesh

Gehenna

Music by Sanrabb and Sarcana
Lyrics by Sanrabb and Dolgar
Night grows near, the everlasting night
That draws this world to an end
No longer a part of the darkly clouds
He stand alone in eternla splendour
The word became flesh and set tent amongst the living
Whilst I spoke to the dead but dreaming
Dwellers of the deep succumb of their law
Riders of fire, bringers of awe
Many a spell you have granted
Many a soul you have shattered
Universal your magic spread far and wide
In pain I praise them
Your dreams of Darkness
Where no keys are left within the grasp of light
Tonight we gather round
Each a knight we sacrifice
With the certainty of death we are still alive
The word became flesh and set tent amongst the living
Whilst I spoke to the dead but dreaming
Dwellers of the deep succumb of their law
Riders of fire, bringers of awe
