

Burn Back the Sun

Decyfer Down

I take a walk in the bitter cold
I try to see your face and the way that it used to be
The sky was never gray, there was a time when I let you in
You turned my night to day but I turned you away
Burn back the sun, bring back the fire once
Blazing inside this hollow cage
Burn back the sun, you were the only one
To love me with passion's quiet rage
I have tasted the apathy, it's bitter on my lips
I am not who I used to be, betrayal with a kiss
Open mouth for the prodigal, you kept the flame alive
You keep this flame alive
Burn back the sun, bring back the fire once
Blazing inside this hollow cage
Burn back the sun, you were the only one
To love me with passion's quiet rage, quiet rage
Burn back the sun, bring back the fire once
Blazing inside this hollow cage
Burn back the sun, you were the only one
To love me with passion's quiet rage
Burn back the sun, bring back the fire once
Blazing inside this hollow cage
Burn back the sun, you were the only one
To love me with passion's quiet rage
Burn back the sun
