Only the Lonely

Indiana

Where I stand on my own
Are the pieces of my heart
A ruptured soul, I'm so coldThe hollow cries, the silent talks
There's no peace here in the dark
When all have fled, the love is deadSo far away, so far away
We are lost like a legion of souls
Only the lonely know
In the shadows the fallen will roam
Only the lonely go
The fire burns in our eyes
We are lost like a legion of souls
Only the lonely knowWith one voice, in one breath
Bursting emptiness
Broken ghost we're coming homeSo far away, so far awayWe are lost like a legion of souls
Only the lonely know
In the shadows the fallen will roam
Only the lonely go
The fire burns in our eyes
We are lost like a legion of souls
Only the lonely knowI shout it out, I shout it out
Why can't anybody hear me?
I shout it out, I shout it out
Why can't anybody see me?We are lost like a legion of souls
Only the lonely know
In the shadows the fallen will roam
Only the lonely go
The fire burns in our eyes
We are lost like a legion of souls
Only the lonely know
