

Satellite Words and Me

The Sidekicks

If you're looking for a 'love you'
If you're obsessing over dreams
I've got a million greeting cards made
I'll teach you to be as tired as me
And now in the 'how is it going?'
You found out a proud way to speak
About how your going seems circular
The circuits meet But you can't sit straight
Because you're too afraid
Of head injury
From impending debris
Some satellite words and me
Letting loose
Not quite a recluse
I'm spending money on the real
But all that's gonna get
Is some more internet
But somehow I feel obsolete
Oh now in the how is it going
I found out a proud way to speak
About how my going seems circular
My circuit week
But I can't sit straight
Because I'm too afraid
Of head injury
From impending debris
Your satellite words said:
'I guess I need a change
And I'm moving out west today.'
