Symphony in V-minor

Pool the wool over the eyes 3 sheets to the wind by the skin of your teeth in for a penny, in for a pound
I am a man of straw I hold a candle to the devil within me between the devil and the deep blue sea

Let me steal your thunder
dig and shovel up this mortal coil
touch and go
let me steal your thunder
got too many irons in the fire
and I'll be in cloud cuckoo land for now

I see a little girl holding her fathers hand I see he's so in love with her it kills the demons casts the bitter spells away it doesn't bother anymore it doesn't bother them at all

I see a grown-upman holding his mother's hand he drives to nowhere in his car it's like the whole worlds gangin' fast up on him now he kills his darlings even more it doesn't bother him no more

I clarify the prince becomes a queen before he's crowned got knows how to impress or how to move you

Oh, I see you're a little bit scared
I'm singing in falsetto on a newborn day
I wear no crown

he wears no crown!
I'm in the moon in the mood for you touching the myth, you're terrified!
I'm not afraid, I like the music
Devil
Diablo
Antichrist!

- Many people say it but I do as I please not a queen you shall be crowned!
- If you have a better one then say it to me please

Bonaparte - Bonaparte
Bonaparte - Bonaparte
Magdalena! - Josephine!
Magdalena! - Josephine!
Mega - Mega - Mega - Megalomania!

- His talent's so giga - giga - giga - Gigante!
- I'm like
Napoleon
Napoleon

Napoleon his crown! (Really? Really? - Really Really?)
- and I steal that crown!
but God and Christ are on my side!
"God and Christ are on my side?"
- Madre de Dios listen to me please:
no one out there who can play this game until then his crown is mine mine, mine, mine, mine!

You ripped it and tore you, you ruined his voice you rock'n roll cowboys you leave me no choice is there a voice for me?

Let me steal your thunder
touch and go
let me steal your thunder
and I'll be in cloud cuckoo land for now

so now you know: I am the new king no one will take that away from me I'm your new king, can't you see?

(I never was seriously)
