

Behind the Moon

Matt Costa

I would shine just like a million suns if you'd just love me baby
I'll be in your life again so baby, baby just say maybeNow here I come
To dance around the sun
I've been oh so blue
Stuck behind the moonNow let me in
Back where we begin
And let me hold you like the way
I used to doAll the stars point me to you and lately they just drive me crazy
A universe can be so cruel so baby, baby be my ladyNow here I come
To dance around the sun
I've been oh so blue
Stuck behind the moonNow let me in
Back where we begin
And let me hold you like the way
I used to doI would shine just like a million suns if you'd just love me baby
I'll be in your life again so baby, baby just say maybeNow here I come
To dance around the sun
I've been oh so blue
Stuck behind the moonNow let me in
Back where we begin
And let me hold you like the wayNow let me hold you like the way
Now let me hold you like the way
Now let me hold you like the wayI used to do
I used to do
I used to do
I used to do
