We Might Be Dead by Tomorrow

Soko

Give me all your love
Coz for all we know
We might be dead by tomorrow

I can't go on wasting my time
Adding scars to my heart
Coz all I hear is
I'm not ready now

And I can tell
That you didn't had
To face your mother
Losing her lover
Without saying goodbye
Coz she didn't had time

I don't want to judge
What's in your heart
But if you're not ready for love
How can you be ready for life?
How can you be ready for life?

So let's love fully
Let's love loud
Let's love now
Coz soon enough we'll die [x6]
