

Safe Side

Chris Cagle

Have you ever wondered what life would be like
If you only went left instead of taking that right
    If you had waited just ten more minutes
To leave the house, would it all be different?

    Every decision, everything we choose
    Has a consequence whether we win or lose
    Nobody knows that any better than me
I left her standing at the station, with a ticket and a dream

    She's the train that I didn't take
    The big commitment I just couldn't make
    For fear of breaking my heart,
    I didn't risk the ride
Yeah, she's the lesson I learned the hard way
    Now being lonely is the price I pay
    The river of regret runs deep and wide...
    Here on the safe side

    I still remember the night she left
    She said she didn't want to lose me
    But she had to find herself
I coulda stopped her or got on board with her
    But now it's too late to reconsider

    She's the train that I didn't take
    The big commitment I just couldn't make
    For fear of breaking my heart,
    I didn't risk the ride
Yeah, she's the lesson I learned the hard way
    Now being lonely is the price I pay
    The river of regret runs deep and wide...
    Here on the safe side

Sometimes the greatest risk of all is never taking one at all

    She's the train that I didn't take
    The big commitment I just couldn't make
    For fear of breaking my heart,
    I didn't risk that ride

Yeah, she's the lesson I learned the hard way
Now being lonely is the price I pay
The river of regret runs deep and wide...
Here on the safe side

Oh, I don't want to be alone
(Here on the safe side...)

---

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com
written by CAMPBELL, JEREMY PATRICK / GRAHAM, ANNA LISA Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., MIKE CURB MUSIC

Lyrics provided by <https://damnlyrics.com/>