

The Dark World Of The Broken

Trembling Blue Stars

Safe in my cocoon
An empty room
Haunted by
Broken songs and sighs
An empty room
A slow descent
Fearless on this island
To which no-one can get
I don't want to learn
I just want my feelings confirmed
I welcome the false sense of protection
In the dark world of the broken
A tunnel beckoned
I heeded its call
Escape is a long way to crawl
Thoughts of the future are not entertained
Safe and sound and closing down
I make myself small
Freedom from the need for decisions
In the dark world of the broken
An empty room
A slow descent
A slow descent
The dark world of the broken
The dark world of the broken
Of the broken
The broken
