

She's a Creeper

Corey Cyr

She's hangin' round my window.
She's hangin' round my door.
She's sitting in my hallway.
She's pounding on my floor. Whoever she had before,
He can gladly keep her.
'Cuz all she is too me
Is a little annoying creeper. She's sitting on my doorstep,
Been waiting there since noon.
And just when I thought she's gone
She's sitting in my room. Whoever she had before,
He can gladly keep her.
'Cuz all she is too me
Is a little annoying creeper. I'm not leaving
When nothing's even there.
So don't fret for me,
Don't ever shed a tear. Her voice is crying louder now,
It's burned into my brain.
Someone take her back,
She's driving me insane! Whoever she had before,
He can gladly keep her.
'Cuz all she is too me
Is a little annoying creeper.
