

No Fit

Maid Myriad

I woke up in a cold sweat
Drenched in fear of a silhouette
(My very own silhouette)
Peel my skin there's no regret
Leaving me no plastic left

And this mask just won't quite fit
I've realized there's No disguise
There is no fit
I have seen the reasons
Why this mask just won't quite fit
It's no surprise
There is no fit; I've let it slip
Under the radar

Lemon drops, a cigarette
(smoke it/don't smoke it, baby)
Favored high don't pass judgment
(Don't judge me/I feel you judge me)
Suit the tie, parade and bet
Leaving but not finished yet.

I'm just floating in this clueless world.
This clueless, clueless world.

This mask just won't quite fit
I'll die before I quit
This mask will never fit
No fit, No fit

All is lost in what I've found
