Bad Luck And Trouble

R.L. Burnside

I believe that bad luck and trouble
Man is all that joins handsThey might bad luck and trouble
People that's all that joins usWhen my bad luck quit me
Lord my trouble just began
I'm travelin' the so highway
Then since I was a child
Nobody see no woman man
Nobody seems to careBad luck and trouble
Man that's all that joins meWhen my bad luck quit me
Straight man my trouble just began
Lord I'm sittin' down and thinkin'
Man I'm a long, long ways from home
Just sittin' down and thinkin'
Because I'm a long, long way from homeThink about all my good times
Lord and the friends I once knew
Ain't never hurt nobody
Ain't never done nobody wrong
Other people won't accept me they say
"Man leave me alone"Sittin' down and thinkin'
Lord I'm a long, long way from home
Thinkin' about my good times
Man and the friends I once knew
Been a long time man, yeahMan ain't nobody has this trouble
Ain't gonna tell nobody else
Nobody else has trouble
Man, ain't gonna tell nobody else
My whole life I'm livin' baby
Gonna make it by myself
