

Matte Kudasai

King Crimson

Still, by the window pane
Pain, like the rain that's falling
She waits in the air, Matte Kudasai
She sleeps in a chair, in her sad America When, when was the night so long Long, like the notes I'm sending
She waits in the air, Matte Kudasai
She sleeps in a chair, in her sad America
