The Only Thing Wrong

Jamie O'Neal

A family that loves me
More friends than I can count
Got that job I always wanted
Nothing to complain about
I know I've got so much going
Still I've got so much gone
The only thing wrong in my life
Are the arms that don't hold me
Through the long lonely nights
The only thing wrong in my life
Is you're not in it baby, oh
I ought to simply move on
And shrug off your goodbye
But it's hard to see the future
Through these tears in my eyes
The sun never shined so brightly
But one cloud blocks out the light
The only thing wrong in my life
Are the arms that don't hold me
Through the long lonely nights
The only thing wrong in my life
Is you're not in it baby, oh
Yeah, my world was close to perfection
Till the day you said goodbye
The only thing wrong in my life
Are the arms that don't hold me
Through the long lonely nights
The only thing wrong in my life
Is you're not in it baby
No you're not, no you're not
The only thing wrong in my life
Are the arms that don't hold me
Through the long lonely nights
The only thing wrong in my life
Is you're not in it baby, oh
You're not in it baby
The only thing wrong
Is you're not in it baby, oh, oh
You're not in it baby, oh, oh
