Another Time

Ed the Red

Writers: leo sayer & david courtneyAnother time, love
You know I can't quite recognise your face, love
Although I feel I know you from someplace, love
Another time, love -- but not nowAnother face, love
I'm sure I know the voice, but not the face, love
I know you think I know you but then you're wrong, love
I don't know, love, who I amY'see I'm lost...
And I don't know who I amAnother town, love
Tomorrow night I play another town, love
The show keeps rolling on and so it goes, love
I don't know, love where I'm boundI must be going now
I'm sorry I'm unsure
I must be going now
Maybe we'll meet again
Another time, love -- another town -- another placeY'see I'm lost
And I don't know who I am
