

Happy

Stabbing Westward

I know you've grown to hate me
Even more then you have grown to hate yourself
But has it really made a difference?
Sharing all that hate with someone else Please tell me are you really happy?
Do you think he's really worth the pain?
Tell me are you really happy?
Or did you simply throw our life away?
Just to be unhappy Does he worship and adore you?
Does he make you feel so beautifully completes?
Is your life so much better now?
Or do those same old demons haunt your sleep? Please tell me are you really happy?
Do you think he's really worth the pain?
And tell me are you really happy now?
Or did you simply throw our life away?
Just to be unhappy, just to be unhappy Is he everything you've dreamed of?
I imagine he is so much more than me
And I tried to make you happy
But I believe you thrive on misery So please tell me are you really happy?
Do you think he's really worth the pain?
Tell me are you really happy?
Or did you simply throw our life away?
Just to be unhappy, just to be unhappy
Just to be unhappy, just to be unhappy
