Happy

Stabbing Westward

I know you've grown to hate me Even more then you have grown to hate yourself

But has it really made a difference?

Sharing all that hate with someone elsePlease tell me are you really happy?

Do you think he's really worth the pain?

Tell me are you really happy?

Or did you simply throw our life away?

Just to be unhappyDoes he worship and adore you?

Does he make you feel so beautifully completes?

Is your life so much better now?

Or do those same old demons haunt your sleep? Please tell me are you really happy?

Do you think he's really worth the pain?

And tell me are you really happy now?

Or did you simply throw our life away?

Just to be unhappy, just to be unhappyIs he everything you've dreamed of?

I imagine he is so much more than me

And I tried to make you happy

But I believe you thrive on miserySo please tell me are you really happy?

Do you think he's really worth the pain?

Tell me are you really happy?

Or did you simply throw our life away?

Just to be unhappy, just to be unhappy

Just to be unhappy, just to be unhappy
