My Life My Rules

Combichrist

Now you know it's changing
And now you're running away
We got the hate, we got the soul
I got it, fuck it, let's just throw it awayI got six rounds, save one to put in my head
We're not going home
You know we never get enough in this city of dust
We're gonna play againI said hey, it's my life, my life my rules
Ain't nothing can change that, don't you know
My life my rulesI'm so sick and tired of waiting for you
There is nothing left to do
You've been too proud, you've been a fool
God damn, you're so overratedInsane assaults
I sold my soul for a hole in the wall
We're never ready, I had to quit it
We're only burning awayI said hey, it's my life, my life my rules
Ain't nothing can change that, don't you know
I said hey, it's my life, my life my rules
Ain't nothing can change that, don't you know
My life my rulesAin't nothing can change that...I said hey, it's my life, my life my rules
Ain't nothing can change that, don't you know
I said hey, it's my life, my life my rules
Ain't nothing can change that, don't you know
My life my rules
