Man

Duologue

I got a man who makes me wanna kill
I got a man who makes me wanna kill
I got a man he makes me wanna
I got a man who makes me wanna kill
I got a man who makes me wanna die
I got a man who makes me wanna die
I got a man who makes me wanna
Oh, I got a man who makes me wanna die
Yeah we're all gonna burn in hell
I said, "We're all gonna burn in hell"
Because we do what we gotta do real well
And we've got the fever to tell
I said, "We've got the fever to tell"
Hey, come on, hurry now ,uh uh
Hey, uh, hey, uh, come on, uh, ha, 2 3, go
I got a man who's beggin' for me
I got a man who makes the devil pale
I got a man who makes me wanna kill
I got a man who makes me wanna kill
Yeah we're all gonna burn in hell
I said, "We're all gonna burn in hell"
Because we do what we gotta do real well
And we've got the fever to tell
I said, "We've got the fever to tell"
Yeah, I got a man, well, I got a man
Hey, I got a man, yeah, yeah, I got a man
