One Good Love

Rascal Flatts

One good love erases all
The bitter tears on an empty dance hall
All those lonely nights when she never called
It just don't seem so tragic after all
With one good loveOne good love and daddy's hands
Were strong and fair and a momma understands
Because she's been there and all mistakes
Were just because they cared so much
With one good loveOne good love
You bless all my memories
You soften the fall of my tears
And in my arms you're more than enough
You're one good loveHey you're one good love
Yeah, you're one good loveOne good love
You bless all my memories
You soften the fall of my tears
And in my arms you're more than enough
You're one good loveOne good love and born again
Means more than pass the plate and bow your head
Yes, you bury what needs burying, you raise it from the dead
The very best, you heal the brokenness, give grace to everyone
With one good loveYeah, oh, one good love
Hey, one good love
Yeah, I'll give you one good love
Oh, give me one good love now, love yeah
Ooo yeah
Lord, I feel born again, yeah
You got to give me one good love now
One good love

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/