Bonebreaker

Million

Fallen again into the unknown
Lost by the battle of heaven and hell
Back in the burn my life is my own
Stuck in the madness Im cursed by the spellIn the mirror reflecting my soul
Catching a glimpse of the fallIn shadows of illusion evils on the run
Killing in the name of the chosen one
Darkness getting clearer slaughter has begun
Praying for the game
Im the one
BonebreakerMaster of pain Im prowling the night
Death and destruction the fallen will burn
Screaming in vain Im searching the light
Savor the moment before my returnIn the mirror reflecting my soul
Catching a glimpse of the fallIn shadows of illusion evils on the run
Killing in the name of the chosen one
Darkness getting clearer slaughter has begun
Praying for the game
Im the one
