

See It Again

Manchester Orchestra

When you got out of your car,
And stopped yourself and thought about How unreliable, my god had turned out You found a reason why you forced the lock and key like a reset in your mind, a different human being. And you're never gonna see it again.
No, you're never gonna see it. There were drawings on your wall of places nobody could see and the congregation heard that you had been anointed not knowing a single thing we gathered here to see are you actually the son of god or overdue relief. Are we ever gonna see him again.
Are we ever gonna see him again.
Are we ever gonna see him again.
Are we ever gonna see him... All the money didn't matter Man the moneys always play
The cautious indecision trying to choose a life to trace It's faith that has the price tag from your face down to your soul It's cost is in the time you spend just wondering where you'll go
Are we ever gonna see him again.
Are we ever gonna see him again.
Are we ever gonna see him again.
Are we ever gonna see
