

Doomsday Stomp

Project 86

Hint number one is
Five letters inscribed over
The lips of eyeless woman
Asking me for needles and a threadTo sew her head together againOh, swollen anthill sore
Oh, insects desperate cries
Oh, they inflected for
Doomsday stomp from the skiesA five letter word for the oncoming plague
A stick figure dangling from stoplight grave
A five letter word for the oncoming plague
A stick figure dangling from stoplight graveA five letter word for the oncoming plague
A stick figure dangling from stoplight graveShe reaches forward
And grabs a hold of my sleeve
Her antennae wrap around me
Her lungs infect me as she breathesThe roadkill scent of violent cityOh, swollen anthill sore
Oh, insects desperate cries
Oh, they inflected for
Doomsday stomp from the skiesA five letter word for the oncoming plague
A stick figure dangling from stoplight grave
A five letter word for the oncoming plague
A stick figure dangling from stoplight graveThis town made its guesses
But can't spell her own nameWell, a five letter word for the oncoming plague
A stick figure dangling from stoplight grave
She can't spell her own nameOh, swollen anthill sore
Oh, insects desperate cries
Oh, they inflected for
Doomsday stomp from the skiesOh, swollen anthill sore
Oh, insects desperate cries
Oh, they inflected for
Doomsday stomp from the skiesA five letter word for the oncoming plague
A stick figure dangling from stoplight grave
A five letter word for the oncoming plague
A stick figure dangling from stoplight grave
