

Moonlighting

Chilled Jazz Masters

He sees her at the same time every night
At the Mexican discotheque
She gives him French kisses
He gives her French cigarettes They sit at the same table every time
The lights are low
But their eyes shine
Just digging the music from those sweet soul bands She keeps him outta fights, holds on to his hand
He whispers slowly tonight's the night
Months of planning so it's gotta be right
Under the table her bag is busting at the seams
She made sure to bring everything Moonlighting, they're leaving everything
Moonlighting, they're losing all their friends
Moonlighting, it's the only way, it's frightening
But it means they'll stay together
They're gonna make it together His blue Morris van is parked in an alley
Just by Montague street
His friend Eddie he did the respray
So he couldn't drive it all last week And it cost most of the money that he had saved up
To pay Eddie's receipt
But he figures it's worth it cos the disguise is a must
When they go missing they're gonna look for the van first She whispers slowly it'll be alright
I took some cash from my building society
And my monthly check came in just right
If only they knew they weren't giving it away 9:15 Monday morning at the printing works
The boss notices someone's not clocked in
And the water department of the council offices has a message
That Mrs. Parks daughter is missing Meanwhile the Carlisle turnoff of the M6 Motorway
Drinking cold black coffee eating hot cup cakes
She stares at him with his beard unshaved
Wonders at his powers of staying awake He whispers slowly you did just fine
They shared the driving all through the night
She laughs my mother will have lost her mind
Were only ten miles to Gretna they're three hundred behind
