Again

No One

I'm not the way I used to be the wounds of life are changing me I've been wasting too much timeI've broke down walls that blinded me and I have fallen to my knees the seeds of dreams now fill my mindWith everything that faces me from every inch of life I see it's up to me, to find a way to clear my mind and start againI can't deny myself to live I'll never question what I give there is nothing I can hideSo once again the choice is clear and once again
I have no fear the seeds of dreams now fill my mindWith everything that faces me from every inch of life I see
to clear my mind and start againI'm not the way I used to be it's up to meWith everything that faces me from every inch of life I see
to clear my mind and start again
again!
again!
