

A Great Escape

Satellite Stories

Couldn't explain it right
Maybe I should've just seen the signs
'Cause you saw exactly what I should see
I'm singing and bringing back harder times
Couldn't explain it right
Maybe I should've just seen the signs
'Cause you saw exactly what I should see
I'm leaving with feeling this ain't goodbye
All I wanted was a great escape
Wrong things got me to the right place
All the blinding lights and dark perfume
In the middle you were looking confused
Couldn't explain it right
Maybe I should've just seen the signs
'Cause you saw exactly what I should see
I'm singing and bringing back harder times
Couldn't explain it right
Maybe I should've just seen the signs
'Cause you saw exactly what I should see
I'm leaving with feeling this ain't goodbye
Fell in to a spell with someone new
I got lost in the colorful view
If we meet someday and things have changed
It goes so fast but who can last in these days
Couldn't explain it right
Maybe I should've just seen the signs
'Cause you saw exactly what I should see
I'm singing and bringing back harder times
Couldn't explain it right
Maybe I should've just seen the signs
'Cause you saw exactly what I should see
I'm leaving with feeling this ain't goodbye
What did I see
When all my thoughts were dreams
And nothing really seemed
To be so real?
What should I feel
When all the cherry trees
Blur into memories
And I just
Couldn't explain it right
Maybe I should've just seen the signs
'Cause you saw exactly what I should see
I'm singing and bringing back harder times
Couldn't explain it right
Maybe I should've just seen the signs
'Cause you saw exactly what I should see

I'm leaving with feeling this ain't goodbye
