Paperweight

Bella Thorne

Cause you got my heart, weighted down like a paperweight like a paperweight, like like a paperweight. i sat inside a restaurant all by myself i thought you'd come, i coudn't hide behind my darkest shade and all the people walking by, were staring at the lonely one, and wondering who made her cry that wayMy heart is black and blue, i don't want no one but you no one but you, you , ohh
no one but you ,you , ohh
kiss me like you do, you do ,ohh kiss me like you do , you do ohhCause you got my heart, weighted down like a paperweight and i'm a fool i love the one, the one that i should hate you got my heart, weighted down like a paperweight
like,like a paperweight like,like a paperweightI really thought that your goodbye was only just goodbye for now but you're not here, so i guess the joke's on me tried so hard to walk away but that can barely turn around this sidewalk feels quicksand underneath my feetMy heart is black and blue, i don't want no one but you
no one but you, you , ohh
kiss me like you do , you do ohhCause you got my heart, weighted down like a paperweight
like,like a paperweightWhy can't i let me let go (kiss me like you do) Why can't i let me let go (oh,oh,oh) Why can't i let me let go (kiss me like you do) Why can't i let me let goCause you got my heart, weighted down like a paperweight and i'm a fool i love the one, the one that i should hate
(no but you)Cause you got my heart, weighted down like a paperweight (oh)
and i'm a fool i love the one, the one that i should hate

(kiss me like you do)
you got my heart, weighted down like a paperweight (oh) (kiss me like you do)
like,like a paperweight (oh)
