Zero Gravity

Wolfheart

Profound is the grief
Fathomless and downhearted is the silence
Overwhelms like a flood
Drowns into the deep dark watersThe ocean floor
Somber and bleary surrounding
Beneath the ice
Frozen surface has begun
To block the light of the sunThe absence of light
Breeds an altered reality
Faithful and familiarDesolation, despair
Like a dead space inside of me
Creates a zero gravity
Existence
Without intentionFootprints on the snow
Covered by the frozen rain from the north
A trace leading into the dark
A grand isolationCold is the air to inhale
Cold is the heart impaired
Glacial blood runs in your veins
Pitch black and frosty ichor
