Mr. Bones

Throwing Muses

Wake up now, I wanna wake up now
I wanna wake with your weight on me
Arms around
My favorite sound, you makeI could sleep if I could only think
I'm not alone with these stars on me
Diamond heat
Cuts me deep, you knowWake up now
Why don't you wake up now?
Look my heart's almost breaking
I know that nowOh, but I don't know how
I can give up all this sinkingSo wake up now
Why don't you wake with your weight on me
Arms around
My favorite sound, you make, you make
