Roman Leader

Tribal Seeds

Sitting on your throne as the pagan ruler
With your servants carrying all the weight
This man who come and speak false amongst the people
Lead them to go astray

This roman leader
This roman leader

Sitting on your throne as the pagan ruler
With your servants carrying all the weight
This man who come and speak false amongst the people
Lead them to go astray
The white robed man
Claiming to live up Jah, claiming to praise up Jah
Claiming to chant out Jah
This roman leader with the mark of the beast
Who worship the pagan saviour?

Turn your heads to the east, we sight of the true lion
The sons did see, the sign of the true father
They want to rule you, they want to fool us
To brainwash us, they school us
Tis the work of teitan, teitan, teitan
