Louden Swain

ha ha
ha ha haaa
ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha
ha ha ha ha haaaGoddamn this affair
It's taking me there
It's taking away
A life of youThe vows gone astray
Just for the day
Heart so betrayed
Once tried and trueAnd you
I can't stand what you put me through
And you
I can't stand what you put me through
This house is a home
But I'm always alone
I always atone
But my sins aren't realIf I'm wrong then you're gone
If I carry it on
If I write it in song
Will my heart still healAnd you
I can't stand what you put me through
And you
I can't stand what you put me throughMy heart's in despair
I'm already there
I can't stand what you put me through
Mountains are broken to years
Nippin' at my heels
Rippin' at my seams
How do I feelCan we just wait and see
You be you and I'm me
You be true and I'll see
If it gets me throughLove isn't fair
But I'm already there
I can't stand what you put me throughMy heart's in despair
But I'm already there
I can't stand what you put me throughLove isn't fair
But I'm already there
I can't stand what you put me throughMy heart's in despair
But I'm already there

I can't stand what you put me through
