Anybody Else but You

D-SIDE

Well I did it again,
We're not talking and then
You keep throwing things and starting a fight
It's been a hell of a day
And it doesn't get much better tonight, oh no
Cause I'll be sleeping alone,
I'll be out in the cold
And I still won't have a clue
I swear I'd just walk away
If it was anybody else but you
If it was anybody elseSlammed the door to the car,
But i won't get too far
Cause I didn't bother to take the keys
By the time I got back
It's all over and your smiling at me
And I know that no one tears at my heart
Even when we're apart
Or can hurt me the way that you do
I swear I'd just walk away
If it was anybody else but you
My loveI say I'm sorry
You say forget it
I say I need you
That doesn't cut it
You got me down on my knees
But I do it for loveI've been sleeping alone
I'll be out in the cold
And I still won't have a clue
I swear I'd just walk away
If it was anybody else but you
My love if it was anybody else but you
