My Heart Stood Still

The Mamas & The Papas

I took one look at you
That's all I meant to do
And then my heart stood stillMy feet could step and walk
My lips could move and talk and talk
And yet my heart stood stillThough not a single word was spoken
I could tell you knew you knew, yeah
That unfelt clasp of hands, told me so well, yeahI never lived at all until the thrill of that moment
When my heart stood still, yeah
And I never lived at all until the thrill of that moment
When my heart stood still
