Call Me A Dog

Chris Cornell

You call me a dog, well, that's fair enough
It ain't no use to pretend your wrong
Well, you call me out, can't hide anymore
I have no disguise you can't see through
You say it's better love to have fallen for me
What can I do to make it good for you
You wore me out like an old winter coat
Tryin' to be safe from the cold
But when its my time to throw the next stone
I'll call you beautiful if I call at all
You call me a dog, you say that I'm low
'Cause I slept on the floor
I'm out in the world with the badges and the walls
You throw me out 'cause I went there for more
And I came home with a head of coal
But when its my time to throw the next stone
I'll call you beautiful if I call at all
And when it's my time to call your bluff
I'll call you beautiful, I'll leave it alone
You call me a dog, that's fair enough
It doesn't bother me as long as you know
Bad luck will follow you if you keep me on a leash
And you drag me along
But when it's my time to throw the next stone
I'll call you beautiful if i call at all
And when it's my time to throw the next stone
I'll call you beautiful, I'll leave it alone
You call me a dog
