Lift Me Up

The O.C. Supertones

Lord, my God, in the morning
Show me how I can serve you today
Lord, my God, in the evening
Let my song rise up to YouI know that You are holy
I know that I'm unclean
And I'm afraid to come
Into Your presenceI know that I'm unworthy
To call upon Your name
From all the way down hereSo I say lift me up
From my lowly estate, lift me up
Where I can see You clothed
In Majesty and Light
Where I can see You clothed
In Majesty and LightIf You'd saved even one man
Surely this is undeserved
But the saints by Your mercy
Stand with You uncountableIs this not amazing, isn't Your name Grace
Aren't you the sovereign God of justice
Haven't we offended, did we not crucify
Guess that we can only wonder whySo I say, lift me up
From my lowly estate, lift me up
Where I can see You clothed
In Majesty and Light
