

Sweet Tooth

Teena Marie

Make it so sweet. . .like candy, Please don't tempt me with your sugar pops,
Look at you, confection surely drops,
Understated, sexy with your modes,
You want these and baby, I want those,
Nosey neighbors all up in our business,
Trying to figure just how ill it is,
Want you so bad, I can't keep my cool,
Bees got honey, baby, I got you, Sweet baby, you're a tease,
You're about to give me some cavities,
Please my palate, drive your girl insane,
Yeah, you know it, like a sugar cane,
So sexy, on the real,
They'll never know just how good it feels,
Talking smack, you really are the truth,
You give me a sweet tooth, I got a sweet tooth,
In it for the taste, I'm gonna chase you,
I got a sweet tooth,
In it for the taste, I'll take the bait, too,
I got a sweet tooth,
In it for the taste, I'm gonna chase you,
You give me a sweet tooth,
In it for the taste, I'll take the bait, too Like a child in a candy store,
So sick with it, I want me some more,
What you got, you want my teeth to rot,
I can't front, you know my sweet spot,
Now or Later? I'll take mine now,
It's a wrap, just throw your girl a towel,
Secret's in the sauce, or so they say,
Brown sugar, baby, I'll take mine that way, Sweet baby, you're a tease,
You're 'bout to give me some cavities,
Please my palate, drive your girl insane,
Yeah, you know it, like a sugar cane,
So sexy, on the real,
They'll never know just how good it feels,
Talking smack, you really are the truth,
You give me a sweet tooth, I got a sweet tooth,
In it for the taste, I'm gonna chase you,
I got a sweet tooth,
In it for the taste, I'll take the bait, too,

I got a sweet tooth,
In it for the taste, I'm gonna chase you,
You give me a sweet tooth,
In it for the taste, I'll take the bait, too Sweet like honey, baby, iced tea,
Every time that you make love to me,
Bees got honey, baby, I've got you,
Messing with you got me a sweet tooth, Sugar daddy, smooth, skin like butterscotch,
Como tale vous? Can I get a taste of you?
I watch your every move,
It's looking like you can be the Wanka to my factory,
Take complete control of me,
Some say you're no good, rotten to the core,
And that you'll only give a piece,
To keep me running back for more,
But, I'm a fan of risk, addicted to adrenaline,
So, take me on a trip and break me off a kiss, So sexy, on the real,
They'll never know just how good it feels,
Talking smack, you really are the truth,
You give me a sweet tooth, Sweet like honey, baby, iced tea,
Every time that you make love to me,
Bees got honey, baby, I've got you,
Messing with you got me a sweet tooth, I got a sweet tooth,
In it for the taste, I'm gonna chase you,
I'm in it for the taste,
In it for the taste, I'll take the bait, too,
I got a sweet tooth,
In it for the taste, I'm gonna chase you,
I'm in it for the taste,
I'll take the bait, too, I'll take the bait, too, Confection surely drips from you lips,
I need a taste, just a little taste,
Cuz your sweetness is my weakness,
