

Marissa Smiles

Jonathan Clark

Don't wanna get up, I got another long day
I need a cup, just to keep me sane
It's hard to see, with only one eye open
I wanna lay back down, but I gotta get goin'

Today I need to go
To the coffee shop just down the road
To see this girl I know

Cause when she smiles, she takes my breath away
It brightens up my day, when Marissa smiles at me
When she smiles, the blues just melt away
Everything's gonna be okay, when Marissa smiles

Now I can face the world, I got my Grande Black-Eye
I saw the girl, that makes me so high
I'm not the only one, who gets a smile for free
Yeah she brightens up, everyone she sees

Everyday I go
To the coffee shop just down the road
To see this girl I know

When she smiles, she takes my breath away
It brightens up my day, when Marissa smiles at me
When she smiles, the blues just melt away
Everything's gonna be okay, when Marissa smiles

So keep on smilin', to everyone you see
Just keep on smilin', girl you know it sets us free
Keep on smilin', and life is gonna be
A much, much better place

Oh when she smiles, she takes my breath away
It brightens up my day, when Marissa smiles at me
When she smiles, the blues melt away
And everything's gonna be okay, when Marissa smiles

So keep on smilin', to everyone you see
Keep on smilin', girl you know it sets us free

Just keep on smilin'™, life is gonna be
A much, much better place, yea a better place
If you keep on now, just keep on, keep on smilin'™
Yeah, yeah, just keep on smilin'™
Just keep on smilin'™... girl keep on smilin'™
