

Tear the Wall Down

Billy Dean

Barely survived, the last goodbye
It hurt so bad, thought I would die
So I built a wall and built it high
Around this broken heart of mine
No one has ever wanted in
As bad as you
Theres only one thing left
For me to do
Its time to tear the wall down
Let it crumble to the ground
Cause its true love I have found
Its time to tear the wall down
Yes it is
Oh memory, stacked up like stone
It kept you out for way too long
So come on in where you belong
And turn this house into a home
If you wanna love me
As bad as you say
I cant let nothin stand
In your way
Its time to tear the wall down
Let it crumble to the ground
Cause its true love I have found
Its time to tear the wall down
Yes it is
No one has ever wanted in
As bad as you
For me to do
Its time to tear the wall down
Let it crumble to the ground
Cause its true love I have found
Its time to tear the wall down
Its time to tear the wall down
Then let it crumble to the ground
Cause its true love I have found
Its time to tear the wall down
Its time to tear the wall down
Yes it is
So long
