

DecaDance

Living Colour

In the ugliness of beauty
And when pretty is vicious
You thought you were a voyeur
But the irony is delicious Yeah, yeah In the access of excess
The pigs are at the trough
You thought you had to fill
But enough is never enough Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance Enough is never enough Young thrill seekers craving attention
Thought you were special
You never learned your lesson Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance Enough is never enough Those that dare to question
Those that dare to dream
Buried alive in your shit
No one can hear you scream In the belly of the beast
You stood tall
Didn't anybody tell you?
All empires must fall Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance Enough is never enough Decadance, decadance
Yeah, the decadance
