The Last Shadow Puppets

I just sort of always feel sick without you baby
I ain't got anything to lick without you baby
Nothing really sticks without you baby
Ain't I fallen in love?It's just the pits without you baby
It's really just the pits without you baby
It's like everyone's a dick without you baby Ain't I fallen in love?And all my pals will tell me that I'm crazy
You bet I'm loopy alright!
And I just don't recognize this fool that you have made me,
I haven't seen him for a whileAnd as you're shrinking figure blows a kiss
I catch and smash it on my lips
Darling I can't seem to quit Completely falling to bits
I really might be losing it
The idea that you've existed all along's ridiculous
I don't know what to sayBaby we ought to fuck seven years of bad luck out the powder room mirror
Could I have made it any clearer?It's love like a tongue in a nostril Love like an ache in the jaw You're the first day of spring with a septum piercing
