Heavy Heart

You Am I

Been watching so much TV
I'm thinner than I should be
I'm like a waterlogged ball
That no one wants to kick around anymoreAn all day morning hairdo
That no comb can get through
It's all granola and beer
A calling card and a silk cut souvenirI miss you like sleep
And there's nothing romantic about the hours I keep
The morning when it starts
I don't look so good
Now I got a heavy heartI talk a lot about football
And girls I kissed in grade 4
I piss off my friends and digging a hole
Just staring at the floorNow every t-shirt's got a wine stain
I'm loving cigarettes again
I know every tune about guys and girls
And hurts and hearts and moansI miss you like sleep
And there's nothing romantic about the hours I keep
The morning when it starts
I don't look so sharp
Now I got a heavy heartIt's just a low rent paying Palpitating pulp under my shirt
But there's a weight that's sitting
Oh, God it hurts, oh, God it hurtsBeen watching so much TV
I'm thinner than I should be
I'm like a waterlogged ball
That no one wants to kick around anymoreI miss you like sleep
And there's nothing romantic about the hours I keep
The morning when it starts
Oh, my heavy heart
