The Neverlution

Capdown

You claim to be freed
To see the need for a change
So isn't it strange
That you're just the same
It's lame, you cannot explain
Half of the things that you claim are the answer
It can't take this
We must break thisYou don't think, just obey
You swallow every word they ever say
This ain't no fuckin' different way
Just another version of the same
And you must admit you're part to blame
I don't deny, I do respect how hard you seem to try
But I know I'll watch it fade and die
As life leads you and breaks your codes
Even though you claim compromise ain't in your dealWe both know we don't want this
And it don't take much to see
That a whole new set of problems
Ain't gonna set us free
We both know we don't want this
So why don't we take our stand
Join together cos I know for one that I have had enoughTake a step back from your stupid fuckin' rules and your codes
For livin' life 'real' on 'the left'
It's time join and make a stand
It's time to join and demand
