Can't Let You Go

Nikki Jamal

Baby girl, you know my situation
And sometimes I know you get impatient
But you don't put on a show to get ovations
Take it to court and go through litigations
And I respect ya gangsta
Treat you like a princess and put some on your neck to thank ya
She's my pinch hitta when they startin' lineup
Ain't playin' right I come off the bench wit her
It might sound like I'm gassin' ya
But it takes time to get from the back seat to the passenger
We been creepin' and sneakin', just to keep it from leakin'
We so deep in our freakin' that we don't sleep on the weekend
Wifey's a little bit uptight
Wonder why I keep comin' home in the middle of the night
It'll be alright if ya bump heads it'll be a fight
But I said it'll be alright, c'mon
I really wanna be wit chu
But I gotta be real wit chu
I can't leave you alone
And I know I'm livin' wrong
But I can't let ya go
You're the one I want in my life
Already got a wife
Can't leave you alone
And I know I'm livin' wrong
But I can't let ya go
You ain't ever step out of line or get out of pocket
So I made sure Canary sent out your locket
To protect you, I'll get out and cock it
And you know the barrel of my gun is big enough to spit out a rocket, oh
You gon' play dumb if cops do come through
I gotta keep the top up if my drop do come through
But I know the boutiques and shops you run through
So I cop her one, and cop you one too
You always get a daily page, weekly ring
Plus you ain't too shy to do them freaky things
I ain't gotta put a band on your finger
Or worry about you tellin' the whole world I'm your man while on springer
At first you was somethin' I denied, something I would slide

Just to do somethin' in the ride
But shorty there's somethin' you provide
'Cuz the entry ain't as good without somethin' on the side, you know

I really wanna be wit chu
But I gotta be real wit chu
I can't leave you alone
And I know I'm livin' wrong
But I can't let ya go
You're the one I want in my life
Already got a wife
Can't leave you alone
And I know I'm livin' wrong
But I can't let ya go
Uh oh, I might be leavin' the earth soon
My girl gon' kill me if she smell the scent of your perfume
Its gonna be a clip toss if I go back
Wit stains of your lip gloss on my throwback
She won't care if I'm a platinum rapper
If she catch me with an empty magnum wrapper
So keep it on the down low call the car celly
You seen what happened with Mr. Big and R. Kelly
You know I care for you
Anytime this chick is there for you
These feelings I'm share wit you
Which makes it a little more clear for you
I really wanna be wit chu
But I gotta be real wit chu
I can't leave you alone
And I know I'm livin' wrong
But I can't let ya go
You're the one I want in my life
Already got a wife
Can't leave you alone
And I know I'm livin' wrong
But I can't let ya go
I really wanna be wit chu
But I gotta be real wit chu
I can't leave you alone
And I know I'm livin' wrong
But I can't let ya go
You're the one I want in my life
Already got a wife
Can't leave you alone
And I know I'm livin' wrong

But I can't let ya go
