R. Kelly

I touch you, you awake all the love that weve been making
I can not believe that it's goin' on the 3rd day
No need for a clock 'cause baby girl we wont stop
Got me wantin' to keep on goin', every since the pants dropWe been making out for a quite while Unbelievable how we drive each other wild
It don't make no sense, this is heaven sent
You have put a spell on me, now I wantSex in the morning, sex in the evening
Sex in the noon day even when we sleeping
I want sex on all the holidays and every single weekend
Baby it's so okay because love is what we makingWell take our time 'cause girl we got our whole life
Your sex is incredible its goin on the 12th night

And I will satisfy your body ways unheardWe been making out for quite a while
