Behave

Haley Reinhart

I like you cuz you're in your own little world
And I like you cuz you tell me I'm your pearl
Sometimes I scream out at night wanting more of your love
Funny how time flies, when I just can't get enoughLa La La
How deep can you go? Cuz I just can't get enough of you, fallingKisses for breakfast and lunch, it's when you take it downtown
Dressed up for dinner for two, take it off for desert now
Champagne and roses, its true, you should make me wanna
Come home and cling onto you, ooh, falling, fallingLa La La
How deep can you go? Cuz I just can't get enough of you, falling
La La La
How deep can you go? Cuz I just can't get enough of you, fallingHey, I can't get enough, I can't get enough
Oo, I can't get enough, I can't get enoughA guy like you, could make me forget the rest of 'em
You put it down, better than the rest of 'em
A guy like you, is all I need to keep me happy
You lay me down, have me begging: I'm all please, please, please
A guy like you, could make me forget the rest of 'em
You put it down, better than the rest of 'em
A guy like you, is all I need to keep me happy
You lay me down, you have me begging: more please, please, pleaseWaking up in a daze, I come to find you're not here
You never were, it figures, why can't I find a guy like you?
A guy like you, a guy like you
A guy like you, a guy like you
A guy like you, a guy like you
A guy like you, a guy like you
