

Blues for Pablo

Manhattan Transfer

So tell me is it hard to see the possibility that I am not the person that I seem I'll show you everything inside
Will you open up your mind?
'Cause I'm more like you than you may ever know We're playing a game
We gotta let it go
Nobody's winning this way
We're gonna lose it all So baby was a shooting star, she crawled into my heart
But time revealed that she was fading out
Now choke everything you feel
And as it all conceals and never heals
You always feel alone, we always feel alone We're playing a game
We gotta let it go
Nobody's winning this way
We're gonna lose it all You're playing your game
You gotta let it go
You'll never win it this way
I know you want it all No one wins, no one wins
No one wins, no one wins We're playing a game
We gotta let it go
Nobody's winning this way
We're gonna lose it all You're saying, "I'm on my game
And I've got it all
I'm on my way
And I want it now"
