Burning

Adrian Lux

Bless your body and bless your soul
I left a notice on the door
I'm feeling sorry for being cold
Your bags of clothes is in the storage shed
I took the chance and I took it now
You will get over it somehow
I picked the words then I wrote them down
The light we had is burning up
(The light we had is burning up)
(The light we had is burning up)
(The light we had is burning up)
The light we had is burning up
Bless your body and bless your soul
I left a notice on the door
I'm feeling sorry for being cold
Your bags of clothes is in the storage shed
I took the chance and I took it now
You will get over it somehow
I picked the words then I wrote them down
The light we had is burning up
The light we had is burning up
The light we had is burning up
The light we had is burning up
The light we had is burning up
The light we had is burning up
Bless your body and bless your soul
I left a notice on the door
I'm feeling sorry for being cold
Your bags of clothes is in the storage shed
I took the chance and I took it now
You will get over it somehow
I picked the words then I wrote them down
The light we had is burning up
The light we had is burning up
The light we had is burning up
The light we had is burning up
The light we had is burning up
The light we had is burning up
