

Gatteka

Ghostmane

See I just can't relate
You try to pretend we're the same
But we ain't the same You try to pretend for the fame
I say you a lame, yeah
I can't relate, I can't relate (Nah, nah)
I cannot relate, I cannot relate (Nah, yeah)
You try to pretend we're the same
But we ain't the same
You try to pretend for the fame
I say you a lame, yeah
I can't relate, I can't relate
I cannot relate, I cannot relate
Had an epiphany (Scream this)
I'm in control of my destiny
Ominous entity,
Mephisto has no control of me
Rather be wrapped up in cellophane then give my soul for the fame
Well I must be new to this game even though they all know my name
All I ever wanted was another one to feel me on a mental level
And not just the devil or malevolent evolutions of the animal in me
You tell me you feel me but I don't believe it
The next thing I know you gonna turn on me
Let everybody believe your lies
I'll be fine
I'll be fine War is peace,
Freedom is slavery,
Ignorance is strength
See I just can't relate
You try to pretend we're the same
But we ain't the same
You try to pretend for the fame
I say you a lame, yeah
I can't relate, I can't relate (Nah, nah)
I cannot relate, I cannot relate (Nah, yeah)
You try to pretend we're the same
But we ain't the same
You try to pretend for the fame
I say you a lame, yeah
I can't relate, I can't relate

I cannot relate, I cannot relate
